

The Gubernatorial Correspondence.

The graceful and well deserved complimentary letter of Ex-Governor Colburn, Hon. Noah Woods and others, and the modest and neat reply of Governor Chamberlain will attract attention, and be received by a very large majority of the Republicans of Maine with the highest satisfaction.

Whatever a few discontented and not very judicious temperance men may say or think to the contrary, there is no disputing the fact that Governor Chamberlain is the choice of a very large majority of the temperance men in the State, as he is of nearly all of the "dry" men in the State.

THE NEW PARTY.—The Riverside Echo, under the management of its new editor, Rev. J. E. C. Sawyer, takes less cautious ground than formerly on political questions. In the leading editorial of this date, the first thing that strikes the eye is the following:

The friends of Temperance will do nothing rashly, but they have been driven to the occupying of more independent position than they have hitherto held, and they will respond to the call of the new Republican party with more ready allegiance, than they have to their measures and support the men whom they shall designate as their standard bearers.

The matter of calling a Temperance Convention, forming an independent party and making ing a nomination for Governor, in accordance with the recommendation of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars, will no doubt be settled at the meeting of the State Executive Temperance Committee, to be held in this city on the 12th of May. Our impression is that prudent counsels will prevail, and that nothing will be done to imperil not only the cause of temperance, but other cherished principles that have found active and effective advocacy in the Republican party.

GARBAGE.—The idea that lobsters and other kinds of fish are to be vended on the sidewalk all summer is one not to be tolerated. The City Council should pass an ordinance clearing the streets of all fish stands, and then the police should put the law in force. Fish of all kind is good food, but for twenty or more boys and men to devour scores of lobsters, in the entrance ways to offices, throwing the refuse on the stairs and floors, is a little uncivilized if not uncivilized. There is plenty of suitable place for fish-stands in the city, and those dealing in fish should be made to locate themselves in these places.

—Among the appointments for Maine announced on Tuesday, is that of P. W. Peck Esq. of Ellsworth, Supervisor of Internal Revenue for the district of North and South Carolina.

—Hallowell, which once had four hotels, now without any, the Hallowell House having been sold and closed up.

—Mr. Hutchins of Penobscot has bought and taken possession of the homestead of Charles Joy Esq. of Surry. Mr. Joy has moved to Ellsworth, and wields the hammer with as much vigor as in his youthful days.

—It is reported that more money is spent in New York for tobacco than for bread.

—Robert Johnson the son of Ex-President Johnson is dead. He died a victim of intemperance. He was a man of fine talents.

—Mr. H. S. Trevett of Trenton has launched on our table a hen's egg which measures the longest way 8-14 inches, and the smallest way 6-3-4, and weighs 4-14 ounces. It is the product of a Black Spanish biddy.

The Legislature at its recent session provided by law for the appointment in every county of a superintendent of public schools, the appointment to hold office two years, and the compensation to be three dollars a month.

—The Bath Sentinel don't like it because ex-Gov. Coburn and eight others of the most ardent Republicans in the state, and temperance men also, invites God Chamberlain to consent to be a candidate for a re-nomination. It is the most proper thing to be done; and if the Sentinel wants a different man let it join with others in inviting its pets to be a candidate, and then let the Convention settle the matter. It would seem as if a few ultra Temperance men desire to make a "close corporation" of the Republican party.
